Tacoma, Wash. 98402

The Greater Harvest Baptist Church announces another year of successfully aiding the poor. Through the efforts and support of businesses and groups, we were able to give out 299 food baskets. Through the Thanksgiving Holiday, Nov. 25, 1971.

The program, headed by Rev. C. J. Adams has been successfully providing foodstuff and baskets for its sixth straight year in Tacoma. The program was made a success through the efforts of a few of the local churches: Edwards Temple, Galilee Baptist Church and New Covenant Pentecostal Church.

The members of the Greater Harvest Baptist Church would also like to give special thanks to Safeway Store, Foods King Store, Glenn's Furniture Store, Tacoma Urban League and other businesses of the area.

TOYS FOR TOTS

Artists from all parts of the country will be participating in a TOYS FOR TOTS art show to be held November 26 to December 5, according to C. W. Newlen, show director. The show will be located at the new B & I Home Decorating Center, 8002 South Tacoma Way, Tacoma.

Each year the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves collects toys to be distributed at a Christmas party held for underprivileged children. This year, in cooperation with the toy drive, Art Associates Northwest is sponsoring an art show with the net proceeds from the sale of paintings going to purchase toys for needy children.

Donations of new, or clean, operable used toys will be accepted from the general public.

King Alfred, an 11' high stuffed dog, is the mascot of the show. He will be presiding over the bin where the toys will be collected. Ivan, the only gorilla in history to become a movie star, will be at the show.

"We want to make this a happy Christmas for many needy children who, through no fault of their own, would have no toys to play with Christmas morning unless we all get together and help," said Newlen.

Over 800 original oil and watercolor paintings will be for sale. Individual paintings may be purchased on a time basis. Twenty artists will demonstrate how to paint landscapes, portraits, western scenes, floral work, and contemporary decor.

The judges for the show are: Bill and Lorraine Phillips, Paul Chalk and Lawrence Graham.

Paintings donated by Gordon Bechtel of Seattle and Paul Chalk of Tacoma were auctioned off over Channel 13 on their Project 13 program to give additional financial aid to the toy project. Other donated paintings will be sold during the show.

Some of the demonstrating artists are: Joseph Barnes, Seattle; Gordon Bechtel, Seattle; Oris Dahlen. Western artist from Montana; Mary Jarrett, specialist in fractured light; Mill Johnson, Indian art; Margaret Lowe, Canada; JoAnn Morgan, California; Sharon Sharpe, Tacoma; Betty Uhlmann, Betty Walker, and Nell Wheeler, Seattle.

EIGHT MORE INSTRUCTORS HIRED FOR GATE PROGRAMS

Eight additional instructors have been appointed to teach courses in the GATE program of adult education in Conifer Village complexes.

GATE stands for General Adult Training and Education.

The instructors and their subjects are:

Lela E. Francois, day care licensing; Allie M. Peyton, home management; Horace D. Robinson, basic arithmetic; Owens Satterwhite Jr, Black poetry; Johnny Jackson, child development; Douglas V. Schoffner, Black sociology; Georgia Underwood, sewing; and E. Michael Bryant, judo.

For additional information about the GATE program, telephone Lo 4-7200, Ext. 633.

Sonntag Guest At Reception

Dick Sonntag, newly elected city councilman, was the guest of honor Friday evening at the Esquire Restaurant in downtown Tacoma. The event was sponsored by the Citizens' Political Interest Club and club president Bob White was the master of Ceremonies.

Sonntag thanked everyone for attending and for supporting his campaign. "I especially wish to thank Bob White, the Citizens' Political Interest Club, my family and friends, and many elected public officials who supported me this year, mainly Congressman Floyd Hicks, County Clerk Don Perry, and state legislators A.A. Adams and Martin Durkan," Sonntag said. At his first council meeting, last Tuesday, Sonntag supported three new Model Cities projects, an ordinance allowing Bingo games, and a modified Felon Registration ordinance.

A few of the guests at the Esquire reception were Tim Strege, Jim Walton, Robert Haliburton, Ree Hutchine, Tom Dixon, Chris Washington and Marie Keys.

SCOUTING NEWS

This week scouting news is centered around training. The first of our training is the Junior Leader Training that will be held at Camp Kilworth on December 4th & 5th. Arthur Barnes, 3rd, 1717 Cushman, will be an instructor at Camp Kilworth. Arthur is a member of Troop 211 of St. John Baptist Church. Sign-in begins on Saturday, from 8:00 - 9:00 a.m. and we will finish at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday. A good program, including Winter Camping and Survival helps, will give scouts training that is so meaningful in the Northwest Climate.

The second big training session, will be at Camp Seymour on December 10th & 11th. This training will be known as the Scouter's Training Fellowship. Here a staff of our most talented district scouters are pooling their talents and years of experience to give you a meaningful weekend. Cost is just $5.00, which includes meals, a warm cabin, information and fellowship. There will be something of interest for everyone, including Committeemen, Webelos Leaders, Experienced Scouters, new Scouters and a special session for Commissioners or anyone interested in becoming a commissioner.

Troop 225 of the New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ, Pack 212 of the Stanley Elementary School PTA and a host of other troops and packs will be sending people there, so lets all join for a good week end.

MY MOUNTAIN

I sit and look at my mountain.
I just wonder how and why.
And if God placed it there especially
Just to catch my eye.
It sold me on this country.
Like it has to thousands more
I never tire of it's beauty.
And will leave it nevermore.
Mt. Rainier is what they call it.
So magnificent it stands.
This means frozen drops of water.
And the love of Our Creator's hands.
And when it adds it's beauty
To any piece of ground.
It makes you feel contented
In this land called Puget Sound.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO MODEL CITIES ADMINISTRATORS:

As a long time follower and supporter of the Model Cities Program, I am beginning to worry a little bit about the peculiarities of hiring and appointment procedures.

It appears that the same people are constantly shuffled and reshuffled from one position to another without due regard for other talents in the community. (example, the newly appointed Director of the Adult Outreach Program, previously appointed or hired Recreational Specialist, Law and Justice Planner, Community Organizer, etc.)

For many years minorities have condemn the White business leaders of gross inequities involving hiring and placement of personnel, yet, we have Black leaders of our communities practicing the same inequities. I feel the price of this hypocrisy is to much to pay.

As a taxpayer and supporter of the MC Program, I would like a clarification of why certain positions are controlled by a particular group.

I'm very award of the people involved in the projects, (personally and professionally) and I sometimes questioned their effectiveness and ability in regard to total community betterment.

You may attempt to clarify these questions truthfully or in bureaucratic rhetoric that is so often the response of the WASP society.

Youth Volunteers We Salute You

Three of the participants of the Red Rose Cotillion are volunteering their time to help make the free swim night for girls at the Downtown Boy's Club a real joy.

Veronica Gilmore, Carol Thomas, and Cynthia Underwood are on duty every first and third Wednesday of the month to assist the YWCA Teenage and Boy's Club staff with the swim program. Among their duties are making sure all safety regulations are observed; helping the younger girls get dressed and issuing swim suits and caps to those girls who don't bring their own.

This is a free community service program that needs your support by participation. Mother, come down and swim with your daughter. Volunteer's are always needed and also any donations of swim suits, caps & towels.

Let's fill the Boy's Club Pool with girls from 8-80 years old every 1st & 3rd Wednesday from 6:30 till 8:30 p.m.

To donate suits & caps or time call the YWCA Tennage Office at: Br 2-4181.

From The World Of Gospel Music

Hi Gospel Music Lovers and welcome to what's happening in "The World of Gospel Music."

Well, the Brooklyn ALLSTARS have done it again with their latest album "Let's Rap." This is a tremendous album with a message to those who believe that Narcotics and Sex are the answer to today's problems. With a little psychology, the ALLSTARS gets its listener's ear with the language that most people today are acquainted with. The Brooklyn ALLSTARS are certain to reach the top once again with this - their latest recording.

Album of the week: Did You Stop to Pray This Morning - The Pilgrim Travelers

Gospel's Top 10

1. If You Believe - Swan Silvertones
2. Three Old Men - Shirley Caesar
3. Children Get Together - Edwin Hawkin Singers
4. Jonah - Mighty Clouds of Joy
5. Nothing But God's Word - Rev. C. Robinson
6. Golden Calf (sermon) - Rev. C. L. Franklin

FREEDOM

To be free is to be unrestricted. This bears witness we are not a free people - we are four-hundred years up from slavery and are now in a condition of servitude.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD'S TEACHINGS is removing the shackles from our brains, enabling us to have freedom of mind, therefore, exempting us from subjection to the will of the Devil and making us submissive to The One, True God, Whose proper name is Allah. To submit to do the Will of Allah is truly Freedom.

Messenger Muhammad is rescuing us from a wicked people who put us in this slavish condition, causing us to lose the knowledge of self. Yes! This Master Thief robbed us of our God, our religion, and our culture, as he was permitted to do. Now, the beautiful teachings given to us by The Teacher is removing all of this. It is time for the bottom to come to the top.

Black Brothers and Sisters, are you ready to rise with us? Is it not your nature to want to be on top? What goes up must come down. You can see this wicked world is coming down right before your eyes. The Black Nation will never fall again.

COME TO MUHAMMAD'S MOSQUE of Islam with an open mind to hear the Teachings of The Honorable Elijah Muhammad. Submit to Almighty Allah, that you may be free to go and do for self in the way of Islam, which is Freedom, Justice, Equality. As a matter of fact anyone who visits the Mosque to hear The Teachings of Messenger Muhammad actually takes his first step towards freedom.

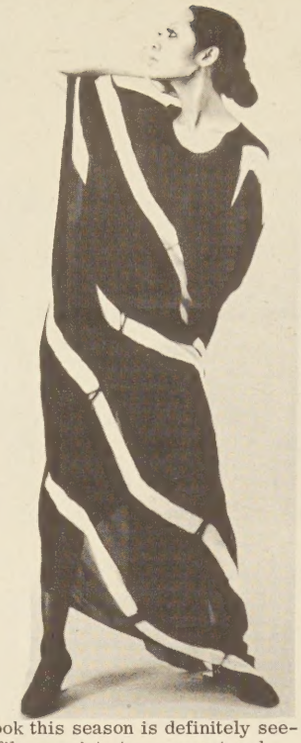
DIANA ROSS WELCOMES HOLLYWOOD STARS AT NAACP IMAGE AWARDS PRESENTATIONS

CHAIRWOMAN -- Superstar, Diana Ross, accepts an NAACP Image Award for her television special, "Diana" from Isaac Hayes of Stax-Volt Records. "Diana" was voted the Best Television Special of the Year. Miss Ross also was Chairwoman of the illustrious NAACP's 5th Annual Presentations black tie affair held in the International Room of the Beverly Hilton Hotel last Sunday.



The look this season is definitely see-through, filmy, misty transparent and Halston designs a black and white silk chiffon Cafton inspired gown which moves with the body of the sophisticated woman who dares to be different.

MARVIN GAYE SWEEPS TOP HONORS AT NAACP'S IMAGE AWARDS SHOW

HOLLYWOOD, NOV. 22 - Marvin Gaye, singer extraordinaire, writer, composer, and record producer, was cited as "The nation's Most Socially Singificant Entertainer" at the NAACP's 5th Annual Image Awards presentation here Sunday.

Sweeping the Image Awards in the three most important music industry categories, Marvin topped all individual nominees by winning Male Singer of the Year, Record Producer of the Year, and Record Album of the Year.

Honors bestowed upon Motown's superstar came as a result of his hit album, "What's Going On," that has won critical acclaim as a masterpiece of lyrical and melodic social commentary.

Marvin accepted his honors modestly with a simple "thank you kindly," giving every indication that whatever else he has to say will be done in the recording studio where he is now working on a sequel to "What's Going On."

Marvin last performed publicly when he headlined the opening of Reverend Jesse L. Jackson's first Black Expo three years ago in Chicago.

Holding his three Image Awards, Marvin repeated the statement he made in his "What's Going On" album notes:

"I would like to first give thanks to God for giving me the strength and faculties to make this album. Then, thanks to my parents, the Reverend and Mrs. Marvin P. Gaye, St., for conceiving, having and loving me. And special thanks to my wife, Anna, for bugging me into working ..."

Other Motown winners at the Gala Image Awards Show held in the International Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel, were the Jackson % who won "Male Vocal Group of the Year," for the second consecutive year. The coveted honor for "The Single Record of the Year," went to "Smiling Faces Sometimes," written and produced by Motown's Norman Whitfield and Barrett Strong and performed by The Undisputed Truth.

Honorary Chairman of this year's Image Awards was Motown's superstar Diana Ross, whose TV special, "Diana," was cited as the Best TV Special of the Year.

Miss Ross, who was cited by the NAACP last year as Entertainer of the Year, took valuable time away from her filming of "Lady Sings the Blues" to pay her dues to the NAACP. She also is an NAACP life member.

CHARMED -- The Jackson 5 happily accepts the NAACP's Image Award for being the Best Male Vocal Group of the Year from beautiful Television Actress Gail Fisher of Mannix. This was the second consecutive year that the Jackson 5 has been honored as the nation's top male vocal group by the NAACP.

BEAUTY AND TWO GIANTS -- Marvin Gaye, Motown's singer extraordinaire, accepts the NAACP's Image Award for Record Producer of the Year from two friends, Isaac Hayes of Stax-Volt Records and beautiful Gail Fisher of television's Mannix.

Boys' Club News

IT'S TIME AGAIN

Young boys at the DTBC are in preparation for their annual 1971 Junior Gloden Gloves boxing tournament. Every year at this time the DTBC puts on a Jr. G. G. tournament by inviting various fighters from Seattle, Portland and Canada.

Coach Joe Clough is hoping that he and his team can maintain a team championship this year as they have done in the past. Fighters in the Senior class are National AAU champ Sugar Ray Seales weighing at 139; Returning champ from last year's Jr. G. G. Wilbur Seales; Dale Grant. Not participating in this year's tournament will be Larry Smith who is under doctor's care and will not be in any shape to participate; also Jerome Bennett who has retired from the ring. Fighting in the Jr. Class will be; Little Ricky Lockeridge, 75 pounds of dynamite and returning champion from last year's Jr. G. G. Also David Quins, Ronnie Spurill, Jon Bumbas, Henry Pulley and a few others.

Last years gloves was held at the DTBC but since this event has become much more popular this year's event will be held at Jason Lee Jr. High, 6th and Sprague. There will be two sessions; a day session for the plimenarys and a night for championships. All in all we expect about 50 bouts. The DTBC "Soul Control" will take control of all the music at our pre-Christmas dance on December 17th.

Donations will be $1.25 at the door the time is from 9:00 until 12:00. Place DTBC and dance contest will be held.
